Trust in me
And then you'll see
Trust in this misery
Trust in me
But then i'll flee
Trust in these memories
Why do i feel this way
Never thought I'd want to stay
And this never ending day
Has only my heart to betray
So take these broken pieces
And put me back together again
How many times must i break
I've learned to love the pain within
I need to see you cry
Bring all your tears to me
I need to see your eyes
Only then i can be free
