It's looking back that makes this hard
Three years I've walked these streets for you
And now your gone
I want to know where we go from here
If I could change anything
I'd be strong
Those were the Kindest word you've ever spoke
I'll be a stone through the storm
That can stand alone

Chorus:

For all the times I've felt too scared to try
Let me stay till night
Everything that holds me back inside
Just let go
Cause these are the moments that make or break
What we become
And I just want to shine for you
(Just for you)

The night was on inside my mind
I said I'd never leave your side
Where did I go?
You have to know I would trade it all
Just for the chance to stand for you
Those were the saddest words I've ever heard
I'll turn my back on what I love
I let you down but still you don't give up!

Chorus

And the reeds spin so quickly as the winds
Of adversity grow. and the stones they throw at me
So that with you this fleet with be strong

Chorus x 2
