Visit "November Regrets" on MotoLyrics.com

just because i said goodbye didnt mean that i wanted you to walk away and now without a reason why i awake and find another day my heart is bleeding in your hands i hope it stains in your mind and everynight the moon may come up but now my stars stay behind words burned into my memory those locks i can never change im all stocked up on hopelessness but despair i think i can arrange concentration declaration

anything of my love explanation
conversation on the wings of a dying dove just because i said "i love you" didnt mean that i wanted you to stay and just because you said i was priceless doesnt mean that you were willing to pay
