Yes, I think it's safe to say
I feel good about the place
That I've been made in the world today
I get all sticky inside when I close my eyes
And I open up wide

I see pictures in the clouds
So obscene I gotta laugh out loud
I look back to find my way
Reminisce and laugh about the good old days

Yeah, when I saw my brother above me
I remember the words he said
When you dream you hit bottom
Chances are good you're gonna wake up dead
I'll be up on top when the sky falls down
And it all goes wrong again

Yeah, I will be sitting on top
When it all goes wrong again
Yeah, I will be sitting on top
When it all goes wrong

Yes, I think it's safe to say
I feel good about the sins
That I inflict on my own skin
I pay money to cut and burn
Pictures like the lessons that I need to learn

I see faces on the ceiling
I see them move, I hear them singing
I lay back in here by myself
I think about the time that I've spent in hell

When I saw my brother below me
I remember the words he said
When you leave you wake up happy
Then you'll sleep right in your own warm bed
I'll be singing in the rain when the bad dreams come
And it all goes wrong again

Woh, I will be singing in the rain

When it all goes wrong again
Woh woh, I will be singing in the rain
When it all goes wrong

Where are you gonna be
When it all comes down?
What are you gonna do
When it all comes down?

Where are you gonna be
When it all comes down?
What are you gonna do
When it all comes down on you?

I'll be sitting on top of the world
When it all goes wrong again
I'll be sitting on top of the world
When it all goes wrong again
I'll be sitting on top when the sky falls down
And it all goes wrong again

Woh, I will be sitting on top
When it all goes wrong again
Woh woh, I will be sitting on top
When it all goes wrong again
Again and again
I will be sitting on top
When it all goes wrong

Yeah, when it all goes wrong again
Aw, when it all goes wrong again
Oh, when it all goes wrong again

When it all goes wrong again
When it all goes wrong again
When it all goes wrong again
When it all goes wrong again
When it all goes wrong again
When it all goes wrong
