"I speak words of hatred" designed my masters revenge assigned to gods creation affix the evil blessing crucifix avoids your salvation assertion of intense pain desertion of christian promise crawling in your blood fall in agony from this...

evil priest chants... backwards morbid prophets foresee... darkness fires in hell rage
as allies of chaos... speaks a death to live again offer thy sacrifice

the goat shall rise

blood spilling on my altar spells that haunt your end tells the truth evil will conquer radiate the wrath of sathanas devastating hatred reigns forever broken all your futile hopes spoken incantations of your demise defy foolish jesus christ deny the maggot whom I despise chant blasphemy die jesus christ... death to the heavenly

in virgin blood
we chant blasphemy for I am chanting blasphemy!
