Visit "From The Ashes \(She Rises\)" on MotoLyrics.com

born from fire angel of darkness arises creation of desire heart of blackness sears opposes holy father

daughter of satan temptress of thee
come and take me

such beauty indeed
my evil queen
she shall arise
like a dark phoenix
returns from the ashes may you grace this night

none can stop your spell you're beyond death's reach a vision of glory and seduction from the ashes she rises to the earth not even death can claim her soul beware for she is evil itself

I ride the wings of death
I laugh at god's face I escape from the grave to rule over you all
