

Evereve "Bitter Ending"

Breaking off the part of me that lets things fade away, shaking of the certainty of this bitter ending, you calculate this mess, two years deep, it's just as far now, i'm failing every test, to feel this cheap, it's just as far down, you wanted everything from me, you've taken everything from me, i've come to terms with this, two years past, it's just as far now, no need left to persist, nothing lasts, it seems so far down, you wanted everything from me, you've taken everything from me, wake up and see where you are now
