Give me the sleep, I need to forget
My pain and my sorrow, my grief and my dept
Give me the sleep, I need to forget
Hypocrisy, cruelty, hatred

And if there's someone to hear me then answer my cries
And if you are near me please drop your disguise
I need to get out, please show me a way
To cope with my dread and my fear every day

Restricted are my paths, destinations of myself far away
The wheel of life has stopped turning, an angel leads me astray
I am longing for farewell, just a passenger in a boat
A boat called life, after which way will it lose its load

Void, peace and stillness
Is what I yearned for
Let me be a fallen star
Insignificance is what, is what I will earn

Universe, I want to drift in your eternity
Universe, lay your arms around my soul
Universe, a part of you I want to be
Universe, your star of death I've seen it glow

Universe
Universe
Universe
Universe

Prepared for your reception
Your timeless nothingness awaits me
Awaits me

Universe, are you a part of me?
A part of you I want to be

Void, peace and stillness
Is what I yearned for

Let me be a fallen star
Insignificance is what, is what I will earn

Universe, I want to drift in your eternity
Universe, lay your arms around my soul
Universe, a part of you I want to be
Universe, your star of death I've seen it glow

Universe, around my soul
Universe, I've seen it glow
Universe, around my soul
Universe, I've seen it glow
