Maybe crimes must be done
Your fallen prophet's on the run
Surrender to your deepest rage
Celebrate the dying age

For I am the scar in you
(All is done is done for the best)
For I am the crack in you
(All is done)

You adored me
Trying hard to ignore me
Licked your wounds just for me
As light began to fade

I destroyed you (I am your blood)
Broke your wings in two (I am deep within)
Penetrating you

You belong to me
You're mine
You're mine
You're mine
You're mine

Maybe you just wonder why
Is all I told you worth the price?
Trust me, I will show you bliss
Caress you with my poisoned gift

For I am the scar in you
(All is done is done for the best)

You adored me
Trying hard to ignore me
Licked your wounds just for me
As light began to fade

I destroyed you (I am your blood)
Broke your wings in two (I am deep within)
Penetrating you I embraced you (I am your flesh)

Took your breath away from you (I'm in your dreams)
Suffocating you

You belong to me
You're mine
You're mine
You're mine
You're mine
You're mine

You adored me
Trying hard to ignore me
Licked your wounds just for me
As light began to fade
Anxiety prevailed

I betrayed you
Suddenly I mislead you
Eternally I hold you
Anxiety prevails

I destroyed you (I am your blood)
Broke your wings in two (I am deep within)
Penetrating you I embraced you (I am your flesh)
Took your breath away from you (I'm in your dreams)
Suffocating you

You belong to me
You're mine
