take the hatchet that i thought id buried,
cut me down and throw me away,
this is just routine and a fact of life,
it's halfway through the night and still no sleep, there is nothing more for me (see me falling, see me falling down),
but a death and scream (fuel my strength now), give me strength where they are weak (see me falling, see me falling down), give me sight where they can't see (clear my sight now), getting up as i try, prying open my eyes, fighting until the end,
when you...take the hatchet that i thought id buried,
cut me down and throw me away,
this is just routine and a fact of life,
it's halfway through the night and still no sleep,

hope is all i have in me
stay with me i'll never concede again,(hope is all i have
and need)
stay with me i'll never concede again,(hope is all i have
and need)
stay with me i'll never concede again,(hope is all i have
and need)
stay with me i'll never concede again,(hope is all i have
and need)
stay with me i'll never concede again,(hope is all i have
and need)
and need)
