follow fool's gold into the darkness not knowing what the light at the end means I'm the patron saint of putting it all on black when it always, always comes up red just one taste is all you need

just one taste is all you need

I'm never going home (once you) I'm never giving in (feel it) I'm going to find a way (once you) I'm going to make it last (taste it) throwing your lies into the throats of unknowing five long years meet their end we were the patron saint of putting it all on black when it always, always came up red the dream is dead

the dream is
