It's okay, it's okay, it's okay, we've seen enough staring straight, staring straight, straight into the setting sun
let the light burn our retinas and our callused skin all you will have is anger and the money to cash in wishing to contact, but contracts put us out you can fool us once but we won't be the same again desperately seeking the fallen (the fallen)

the damaged, and the weakened, and the used how can you see where you're going (you're going) when all these burning bridges block your view?

we know what you want we know what you need crawling up from the bottom of the list you have fooled us once but now things have changed this song will play your death (this song will play your death)

this song will play your death (this song will play your
death)

the damaged, and the weakened, and the used
how can you see where you're going (you're going)
when all these burning bridges block your view?

on and on and on and on

on and on and on and on
