Everlast Lyrics

Maybe

Maybe you could take a lil' piece of my pain
Maybe you can make it all feel the same
Maybe you can burn this night in my brain
Maybe you can find someone else to blame
For all this pain

Maybe

Maybe you could tell me about your worst fear
Don't say it out loud, whisper in my ear
Ain't never felt nothing' like this here
Maybe you can see things a lil' more clear
Dry away your tear

I love you are just three words that are overused when
we're talking
Love and friendship, situations get confusing so often Maybe I should give this woman my name a piece of my pain

Maybe

Maybe we can talk about all my dreams
Watch them all come apart at the seams
Sometimes when it rains it really teams Sometimes they cut diamonds with laser beams..whatever that means

I love you are just three words that are overused when
we're talking
Love and friendship, situations get confusing so often Maybe I should give this woman my time that would be fine

Maybe

I love you are just three words that are overused when
we're talking

Love and friendship, situations get confusing so often Maybe I should give this woman my name a piece of my
pain

Maybe
