Can we hang out for a while
So I can talk your ear off
Just hear me out
This might sound too weird
I think I have the answer
To the questions
That we talked about
Well, we went out on a limb
Laid our cards down on the table
And discovered
That we're able

[Chorus:]

I am free to believe
What I cannot perceive with my eyes
I can feel with my heart
I don't need to believe with my hands
'Cause faith is so much more than coincidence
It's my evidence

When I close my eyes
I'm taken to the place where
My soul is satisfied
I will look back on the day

That all the fears of living
Up and walked away
Yeah, yeah
Life came out to play
No more second guessing
No more guessing

[Chorus]

Evidence of what you cannot see
But what you hope for
The world that holds your fate
Is not visible
Invisible

Are you free to believe?
What you cannot perceive with your eyes

Can you feel with your heart?
Can you feel with your heart?
Can you see with your eyes?
You don't need to believe with your hands

'Cause faith is so much more than coincidence
It's the evidence
The evidence
