i cant sleep, i cant eat.
the thought of you keeps haunting me.
you left me all alone. how could i have known?
you said this was the best thing.
but i cant be me without you

you have my heart, you are my life
your always on my mind
so let me love you forever (let me love you)
you never rest, your never tired your heart will not expire so say youll love me forever, forever your here and im here i know this love comes with fear will you leave again?

im not sure my heart will mend i know this is the best thing
but i cant be me without you

your heart will not expire
so say youll love me forever, forever, forever feels so right i know its true there is nothing without you

your heart will not expire
so say youll love me forever,(just say you love me) forever, (just say you loove me) forever (just say you love me forever forever)
