I've seen your face here before
You think you've got it all but there is so much more
You hit the wall, you fall, and then you learn to crawl again
There's worlds to explore

Because there's no danger
Do I look like a stranger?
Just look left, look right, everybody's doing it

Haven't you seen?
Everybody's doing it
Where have you been?
Everybody's doing it
Everybody's doing it now
Everybody's doing it now

The Party faithful are all here
So join the ranks among the dance-floor volunteers Because you'll find yourself in being the same as everybody else
You ain't got a thing to fear

Because it might sting the first time
It's always the worst time
Do you feel sick from the pinprick?
Everybody's doing it

It can't be wrong
Everybody's doing it
Just play along
Everybody's doing it
Everybody's doing it now
Everybody's doing it now

Everybody's doing it now...

Just get in line
Everybody's doing it now
Ignore all the signs
Everybody's doing it
Everybody's doing it now

Everybody's doing it now

Give it a whirl

Everybody's trying it

Believe truth of the world

Because everybody's buying it

Everybody's doing it now

Everybody's doing it now

Everybody's doing it now

And now a word from our sponsors,

"We've got the miracle cure"
