Hey darling, where's your light
It seems like such a shadow of what used to burn so bright
Hey now now, it don't seem right Sometimes life's a battle but you're not alone in the fight

Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love when you come around
Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love they can't bring us down

Hey darling let go the fear
There's no need to despair
Hey now now, why the frown?
Cause you bring the room to life with laughter when you come around
But if it all turns to shadow
If it all breaks in two
When the road starts to narrow
All I need is you, yeah

Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love when you come around
Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love they can't bring us down

Hey my darling
Hey, I'd give it all for you
So come what may I'm falling
Further each day, I'm still a fool for you
A fool for you, a fool for you
A fool for you, a fool for you
For you, for you

Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love when you come around
Hey my love, hey my love
Hey my love they can't bring us down

Hey my darling

Hey, I'd give it all for you
So come what may I'm falling
Further each day, I'm still a fool for you
For you
