It feels like I'm up on a wire
And you just keep lifting it higher.
I'm right on the edge, and I'm doing my best not to fall.

It feels like the worlds spinning faster
Toward a beautiful perfect disaster.
The moment you kissed me I knew I was risking it all...

The further I run from you baby,
the closer I get to the truth.
And I feel like nothing can save me.
It's something I just can't undo.
'Cause I can't not love you.

I'm bracing myself for collision
In the back seat if my hearts decision.

I'm rounding the curve and I don't have the nerve to say no.

The further I run from you baby,
the closer I get to the truth.
And I feel like nothing can save me.
It's something I just can't undo.
'Cause I can't not love you.

The further I run from you baby,
the closer I get to the truth.
And I feel like nothing can save me.
It's something I just can't undo.
'Cause I can't not love you.

Baby, baby, I can't.
I can't not love you baby.
I can't not.
