This town
this town feels much better without your weight
my thoughts are much better without you around
without you around
remember what went wrong
because you'll need the push
remember what went wrong
when pushing
when pushing comes to shove pushing
comes to shove
keep in touch
with the ones

from beyond
they will sense us
they can't see words
you will know this was my fault and you didn't mean to hurt but your in for a world of it
you didn't mean to die
take a step closer
because baby you're halfway there refocus your eyes
it's a long way down
you didn't mean to die
