Wake up early
it starts today
you know you act surprised
we will hold back
we'll hold it in
we'll hold it all inside
for the right time
we will
keep this going
no rest
sleep is for the wicked
we'll build this up
from ourselves
from my sins
we will live secret lives
but we'll shake it up
we won't speak of this unless it's to ourselves

no sleep
we will
keep this
going
no rest
secret lives
we will keep
in the back
of our of our minds
in our hearts
we'll live secret lives
in our dreams
in the skin
we'll hold it inside
within
it doesn't matter
who you hurt
some might think
it does
what do they know?
