Sue him now and I'll tell you how
He's gonna milk like a cow
And if you wanna fill a bucket
Simple as pie if you care to try
Just look him in the eye like you're high
And you wanna die to cry
Fuck it
He's stuck it
Where it's ripe and I couldn't pluck it
And it's a jewel
And it's cool
And hell, I ain't no fool to school the rule

Business as usual
System never fails
Everybody's constitutional
Bargain back room sale

I bought and sold, don't you catch a cold
It's going around, I'm told
And it's survival of the healthy
Early to rise gonna win a prize
It's the other guys who realize
Their demises size will fantasize
I'm stealthy, I'll be wealthy
But they deny with a lie
As they try to sigh their sly goodbye
To like it or lump it
And if it's back is turned
Then jump it, so pump it out

Business as usual
System never fails
Everybody's constitutional
Bargain back room sale
Waah

I, yea
Like it or lump it
And if it's back is turned
Then jump it or bump it or pump it
Have your tea and crumpet

On a stump it
Doesn't matter to me you see
If I can let it be, I'm free
In the sea of my destiny
And that's key for me
You know chi for me
And if robbery is chivalry then c'est la vie
Or c'est la guerre
Let the buyer beware the fare
And if you dare to bear the air to care
Then something is there
But if it's bought or leased
Let it be deceased
With the beast released
Then the palm is greased
And we can gather for the feast

Business as usual
System never fails

Aoaw
