

Everyday Sunday

"Herself"

Visit "Herself" on MotoLyrics.com she walks along, trying to find a way out she doesn't know what to do, she wants to do it herself she doesn't see what she could be if only she could see herself

chorus:

i want a girl that'll stand up for what she believes want a girl that'll tell me just what she thinks she never cares about herself just everybody else

she's the same in a crowd and when she's by herself she doesn't put on a show for anybody else she loves God with all that she brings she brings Him everything

she's so beautiful, when her heart is open
