You know how sometimes you meet somebody
Who changes your life
But then after awhile you forget how you felt
About what changed everything chorus
Tell me what's your reason
You find me in this treason
I didn't think that I'd come through
Then I thought that I failed You
I tell You that I still love You
Well I tell You that I'm guilty, I messed up
But You're still the one I love
Please forgive me Jesus
I promise I won't give up
So I know I forgot what it meant just to love
Without caring about my selfish thoughts
I just want to remember what it's like to glorify You
And let it go
