Why did you run so fast?
Couldn't you see it was only at a price?
It holds you back, it locks you in
Opens up a new world, but I'm letting you in
It holds you back, and locks you in 1:
Oh, tell me that it's beautiful
Tell me everything, tell me you're okay
2:
Oh, tell me that it's beautiful
And where you are, I hope it's not this gray
Did someone call for you?
And what did you see?
Oh nothing you could share with me
I'll keep you here in my mind
Wait until it's time for you to drop me a line
I'll keep you here in my mind
Repeat 1
Oh, tell me that it's beautiful, for everyday
Or is it in L.A.?
Tell me you're okay
Tell me it's a dream I piece together
Oh, I'll piece together, pieces of glass
It holds you back, it locks you in
Opens up a new world, but I'm letting you in
I'll keep you here in my mind
Oh, tell me that it's beautiful
Tell me everything
Repeat 2
Repeat 1
Oh, tell me that it's beautiful
For everyday, or is it in L.A
