"Realm Of Death"

Unleashed from the dark
Behold death
I walk alone
But it stands by my side
Reveal the truth of what the future holds
Endless road into the dark
Gates are closed, life has shut you out
And then you called into the realm of death
Kept from the light
The sacred path
But as long as I'm locked away
I'll die a thousand deaths
I still search
For a reason to stay
In a world I cannot grasp
But hope is lost
