How can I say goodbye to you without losing myself too
(losing myself too)
If i let you just slip away my world would fall apart
today
When they'll be nothing worth while tuesday...
In this stupid world today

Times have changed everything
Your still the same to me
But for me close your lights
But find me in your dreams
Say I love you now
But seal it with a kiss

How can I say goodbye to you
Without losing myself too
(losing myself too)
If I let you just slipaway my world would fall apart today

Why did I think about Something going wrong
I have fear of losing you
To a stupid box that I don't want to know
Say I love you now!
But seal it with a kiss

How can I say goodbye to you without Losing myself too
(losing myself too)
If I let you just slip away my world would fall apart
today
Then they'll be nothing worth while tuesday
In this stupid world today

(2x's)
How can I say goodbye to your without losing myself too
(losing myself too)
If I let you just slip away my world would fall apart

today
Then thet'll be nothing worth while today
In this stupid world today
