(music by Lord of Sorrow; lyrics by Prince of Agony)

I wander

With my mind

My true strength

My free hand

Find the Way...

Reach the Pain...

Then a day

I realise

Where to dig

Where to find It

"Beyond the Pain I pass, senseless to this body,

My Soul is free to wander in the Realm of Nothingness,

And here I find the Essence, banished in a Rubin

Tower,

Yes, I find It, but I cannot catch It, 'cause my Body is calling me,

More Pain I need to go beyond the Wall of Flesh,

The Gate to a greater Knowledge is not open yet".
