Behind the slab of glass
Mirror hides a mystery
Hell
Black Prince rules the world
Black sun runs with blood
And eternal night percolates
Through the glass

Eternal
Night
Percolates through the glass
Directly into my soul
This limit is so near

The gates open
One step

On this side Evil is a king
Pentagram burns above hi throne
The Demons whisper in hiss of flames
I touch the mirror
It is as cold as on your side

Come near
I will open the door

Come near...
I'll open the door
