Now don't tell me what to do
If you don't care for the truth
You never cared before, you rather started war
Life will cut you down to size
Still you won't take my advise, no babe
The things you do are out of line
Now boy stop wasting time
Now baby dry your eyes stand up and fight
No reason to cry, get on with your life!
Drop the bomb! I don't care anymore done is done
Done is done! drop the bomb!
We had some good times you and me
Though we always disagreed
We wrong the right you and I though we tried
It's lies on lies
The things you do, it freaks my mind
Still I feel f.i.n.e. fine, don't I babe?
Can you imagine you and me without fights
That'd be nice
Still baby one more fight well I don't mind
It won't turn the tide, oh I hate to say goodbye!
Drop the bomb! I don't care anymore done is done.
Done is done! drop the bomb!
Drop the bomb! I don't care anymore done is done.
Done is done! drop the bomb!
Drop the bomb, let the damage be done
The damage is done now drop the bomb...
Drop the bomb, let the damage be done
The damage is done, now done is done...
Drop the bomb! I don't care anymore done is done.
Done is done! drop the bomb!
Drop the bomb! I don't care anymore done is done.
Done is done! drop the bomb!
Drop the bomb, let the damage be done...
The damage is done now drop the bomb...
Drop the bomb, let the damage be done...
The damage is done, now done is done...
