Oh, it's five o'clock and I cannot sleep
You are in New York and my heart is weak
I'm watching you on this photograph
I'm the biggest fool and I hear your laugh

Lady, careless memory
Lady, be my guarantee
What a difference it makes, alone again
Lady, I call your name

Oh, lady unforgettable, hold on me
Oh, lady unforgettable, can't you see?
Oh, I'm losing my heart and I'm losing my mind
But a lonely heart, it can't survive

Oh, lady unforgettable, talk to me
Oh, lady unforgettable, can't you see?
I got what I want but I lost what I had
It's a crazy world when a love goes bad

In this bed of fire I feel loneliness
And my lost desire of your sweet caress
I'm too proud to beg and too weak to cry
I'm alone again, it's my last goodbye

Lady, it's emergency
Lady, oh, please come back to me
Emotion of fire is burning inside
Lady, don't lose your pride

Oh, lady unforgettable, hold on me
Oh, lady unforgettable, can't you see?
Oh, I'm losing my heart and I'm losing my mind
But a lonely heart, it can't survive

Oh, lady unforgettable, talk to me
Oh, lady unforgettable, can't you see?
I got what I want but I lost what I had
It's a crazy world when a love goes bad
