Oh, come on, love me, you can feel the fire
I'm drowning in my lonely tears
How many hearts are lost in my desire
See all my love and fears

That's the way, babe, you want my sweet devotion
I'll be there if you want me
Come see my heart is burnin' in emotion
I'm not your souvenir

Madonna blue, come kiss me, kiss me baby
Madonna blue, come touch me, touch me now
I'm gonna make you feel like a lady
I know heaven must have sent you

Madonna blue, come love to love me, baby
Madonna blue, oh, feel my heart tonight
My first hello, oh, I want you, my lady
Is your love too good to be true?

Live for love, baby, the diamonds are forever
When the nights begin to drive me down
Today we could, been so good near together
Love makes the world go round

Don't talk to strangers, only to surrender
Oh baby, I'm too young to die
Oh, hear my heart, come on, love me tender
Come with me where clouds fly

Madonna blue, come kiss me, kiss me baby
Madonna blue, come touch me, touch me now
I'm gonna make you feel like a lady
I know heaven must have sent you

Madonna blue, oh, love to love me, baby
Madonna blue, oh, feel my heart tonight
My first hello, oh, I want you, my lady
Is your love too good to be true?
