Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family

Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family

Forty nights, I loved you forty nights
Like satellites, we need no alibis
But in your heart, you had a plan
But in my dream, I was your man
And if you ever fall in love, ohh

Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family

Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?

Forty days, I loved you forty days
Believed in you, ohh, God I prayed and prayed
But in this dream, you fool my heart
We're skin to skin, you broke apart
And if I ever fall in love, ohh

Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family

Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?

Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family

Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?
Why you promised me love?

Thank God, it's Friday night
We're together, we're side by side
Thank God, ohh, it's you and me
All together a family
