"The Wind Cries"

Hey little girl
Do you see the million eyes?
Hey little girl
There's an ocean of disguise

I heard a voice like a memory
It's written in my heart
Oh I don't care, it's my destiny
A passenger of the dark

The wind cries tell me, tell me
Who killed Norma Jean, have you seen?
The wind cries, tell me
Can you mend a broken dream?

Oh, it seems she's a girl of mystery
That's my philosophy
I'm sleeping with a memory, that's reality

Hey little girl
Do you have a broken heart?
Hey little girl, sacrifice apart

Oh, I tell you once babe
I tell you twice, it's a memory
It's a door, babe, to paradise called eternity
