Feel my little heart
It's broken just tonight
Every little teardrop
Baby, you hide

Understand the game
Queen of broken hearts
Oh, you win and lose
Now I tear apart

Oh, yeah, it's ecstasy next to me
Oh, baby, it's fantasy just with me
Come and hold my hand
Understand the name of the game

Too young, too young to get steady
Too young to fall in love
Too young, too young to get ready
Too young for that stuff

How can I be sure?
Oh, my lonely heart
Some [Incomprehensible]
Some words break apart

Time is on my side
Make it on your own
There must be a way
Feeling good alone

Oh, it's ecstasy next to me
Oh babe, it's fantasy just with me
Come and hold my hand
Understand the name of the game

Too young, too young to get steady
Too young to fall in love
Too young, too young to get ready
Too young for that stuff
Too young, too young to get ready
Too young to fall in love

Threat me like a child, babe
If my love could shine
Cry for me, my baby
I almost lost my mind

Come and feel my heart, babe
Next babe to your heart
Come on, come on, baby
Try a start

Too young, too young to get steady
Too young to fall in love
Too young, too young to get ready
Too young for that stuff

Too young, too young to get steady
Too young for that
