All-le-lu-ia
starlight is falling, a baby is sleeping over the hillside, the shadows are deeping shadows are deeping beautiful angels, above us are winging lullays and alleluias, there singing lulley lullay, thou little tiny child bye bye lulley, lullay alleluia lulley lullay, htou little tiny child bye bye lulley lullay softly he slumbers as twilight enfolds him gentle and loving the young mother holds him lovingly holds him with echoes of heavenly melodies ringing lullays and alleluias, she's singing
lulley lullay, thou little tiny child bye bye lulley lullay
