This is the final war along the Ionian Sea, the Battle of Actium

Mark Antony's forces to engage Octavian's legions at sea

Breaking the alliance of the Second Triumvirate

Cleopatra and Antony to defy

Caesarion named King of Kings

A lethal threat to Octavian

Two Hundred Thirty warships at sea

Headed by the great Mark Antony

Devastating loss forces retreat

Agrippa's forces led by experience at sea

Roma shines once again, Octavian's forces powerful and unmatched

Two hundred ships lost

Five Thousand lives lost

Broken line, broken will

There's no place for glory to heal

Raised in blood, raised in fear

There's no place for honor to heal

There's no place for glory, there's no place for honor...

Cleopatra

Bring this war to foreign land, Alexandria

The final encounter between two of Rome's greatest leaders comes to an end

Two hundred thirty warships at sea

Headed by the great Mark Antony

Devastating loss forces retreat

Agrippa's forces led by experience at sea

Roma shines once again, Octavian's forces powerful and unmatched

Two hundred ships lost

Five thousand lives lost

Broken line, broken will

There's no place for glory to heal

Raised in blood, raised in fear

There's no place for honor to heal

There's no place for glory, there's no place for honor...
