My blood is fire
My mind is black
Pain burning bright
Time to explode
All the sickness inside
Tortured beyond comprehension
Rotten wounds abscess and boil
Stitches about to burst
And the ground ripped wide, the skies split forth
The souls broke free as the blood-soaked sea
Fingertips like the caverns of hell

Vaginal opening poised to the sky
Breeding madness and anarchy from the unknown
Cranium cracking with grey desecration
Black hallucinogenic trip spurn elation

And the ground ripped wide, the skies split
Forth and the rain was bloody and smiling rage
The souls broke free as the blood-soaked sea

Fingertips like the caverns of hell
Vaginal opening poised to the sky
Breeding madness and anarchy from the unknown
Cranium cracking with grey desecration
Black hallucinogenic trip spurn elation
The tombs of hell deep dark disease
Torn into hunger and rabid thirst
Screaming nightmare, minds collide
Devils cum as angels die

Doom from the beyond, pain from above
Death from below, mercy in flames
Red crucifixion, eyes see but rot
Volcanic death scenes, hellfire remains

Thorns thrust in deep
Horns crimson stained
Scorched ruined world
All die in pain
