This could be the very last kiss from my little miss perfect suddenly i savour and that funny how the money pays for stuff but doesnt pay for that special little moment i know what i'm after don't know what i'm aiming that didnt mind the baby chat or giving you my name and that the apple of my eye you puzzle me sometimes i need to find that apple guy and maybe he can make an app, failing that maybe we should take another roll of the dice

Cant believe we both let it fade away, I wanna stay for another day, If you wanna save us give me a signal anything would do [2]

I used to sleep like a baby now I lay awake at night thinking 'bout my lady maybe I should take her by, maybe I should take a punch, maybe I should cancel all my flights take a right turn, left is just the place to run, from my demons no one understands me better than my girl except my family and we hanging by your friends i go to tell my head think twice maybe take another roll of the dice

Cant believe we both let it fade away,
I wanna stay for another day, If you
anything would do [2]

I got two main worries in my mind one will i ever find another girl as beatiful and kind two and if I say goodbye will I mind if i saw you in the streets with other guy I try I really do tell myself mate this is 50/50 this is give and take but i just make mistakes this is 70/30, Christ I think we could be running out of rolls of that dice

'cant believe we both let it fade away,
I wanna stay for another day, If you
anything would do [2]

I never ever ever ever wanna forget [3]
I gonna keep the ticket stub from when we first met
I never ever ever ever wanna forget [3]
I gonna keep the ticket stub from when we first met

Cant believe we both let it fade away,
I wanna stay for another day, If you
anything would do [2]

Anything would do [2]
i'll do anything for you
Anything would do
it's the true, the true, the true Anything would do [2]
i'll do anything for you Just give me the signal C'mon.
