You can smell the lust for me
Are you sitting comfortably?
I know you had a violent trust in me
But are you sitting comfortably?
Shouldn't never made a fuss of this
Are you sitting comfortably?

Watch them burn watch them learn
Tell 'em in my grave
Send wages on the flashy watch 'em watch time fade away
I show them in my wagers on the classical the a in every day
I made some brand new friends the comical the a's
The fallen and hard are
A couple of chances
Stand there in a dark room chanting to dances
State to the real and I'm killing them softly Silver leather black so tell them in my lost and Grind forsake while staying awake, my blood's made of coffee

You got a little scared
And now you always tryin' sleep with
The light on, the light on
Always telling me what I gotta do like your name silent
Got your hands stuck around my throat
Articulate hide 'em, rise 'em
Told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably?

You're on a power trip
Lecture on a sour tip
Falling asleep now late to get an hour's skip
Should've gone bad but I chose to grip
See I fully thought sheep like your little boat pep
Lost my home or lost my phone and watch the phone Lost my mind 4 years ago when the eager ship down home road
No way back now I'm living my life
In southern mode now the gun's closed

Burn to the rave but I misbehave
I'd do it all over again
Off to the off yeah I'm off my head
Often sleep in a coffin

You got a little scared
And now you always tryin' sleep with
The light on, the light on
Always telling me what I gotta do like your name silent
Got your hands stuck around my throat
Articulate hide 'em, rise 'em
Told me, told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably?

You can smell the lust for me
I know you have a violent trust for me
Told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably

You got a little scared
And now you always tryin' sleep with
The light on, the light on
Always telling me what I gotta do like your name silent
Got your hands stuck around my throat
Articulate hide 'em, rise 'em
Told me, told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably?
Told me, told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably?
Told me, told me, told me, told me
Are you sitting comfortably?
