I follow my intuition
Tell me when to let go
I gotta make my decision
Oohhhhhh
I love the way he moves me
And here I go again
Something deja vu's me
Oohhhhhh
He makes me feel emotions
Once bitten twice shy
I'm lost inside his eyes
I'm waiting for a sign
Tell me what to do
Because my heart is on the line
I follow my intuition
Tell me when to let go
Female intuition
Show me how will I know
Gotta make my decision
Tell me when to let go
Female intuition
Maybe, maybe I won't
Oohhhhhh
It's gonna be a rough ride
He got me upside down
Crazy but it feels right
Oohhhhhh
Breaking up in pieces
I'm falling far too soon
Without a parachute
I'm waiting for a sign
Tell me what to do
Because my heart is on the line
I follow my intuition
Tell me when to let go
Female intuition
Show me how will I know
Gotta make my decision
Tell me when to let go
Female intuition
Maybe, maybe I won't

If you wanna be down with me tonight
If you wanna get down and hold me tight
Gotta be enough man to treat me right (be enough man to treat me right)
I'll give you my love, my heart and soul
Take you wherever you wanna go
Before I do and lose control
Female intuition let me know
Tell me
How will I know
When to let go
Female intuition
Gotta make my decision
Female intuition
I follow my intuition
Female intuition
Show me how will I know
Gotta make my decision
Female intuition
Maybe, maybe I won't
