Intro:

Thinking bout what i wanna say
Thinking bout how i wanna say it
Really should head out and play
Let Go
Thinking bout what i wanna say
Thinking bout how i wanna say it
Act like a bird of prey
Let's go

Rap:

This day that day, everyday a rat race
Been around since fat lace
Tell me how that taste partner no i'm not a chancer
Looking for the right answers like catchphrase
Just sitting here chilling in the bat cave
While Listening to Nick Cave
Last night was a sick rave, ay
Used to be Elliot now its just a nick name
Call my own shot, wash my own pots
Clean my own socks, changed my own locks
Spit fire from the belly but still my tongue gets tied in knots
I'm unorthodox, So go call the cops
I ate all your crops, I emptied your boxes
Urban foxes
Watch this space, win like Camelot
Living in a paradox, searching for paradise
Oh that's nice, have a nice day
Thought that i'd found it, tried to stay grounded
Now i'm surrounded, clowns and scoundrels.
Short timeline, times like this
I thought i'd want limelight, that's my right.
I wanna place by the riverside please
Thanks for that geez, no more deliveries
This is an epiphany
I can still get high no limits me
Should i just go swimming with the women
Or anything similar, dark activities
Should all too familiar
And that's just not cricket like Jiminy
Don't discriminate, Jekyll or Hyde

Everybody's different at night

Time might fly, Girls may cry
Light may die but the skies don't lie
(repeat x3)

Chorus:

Just take my hand
Don't let go
And i'll show you that the skies don't lie
Just take my hand
Don't let go
And i'll take you where the sun don't shine
(repeat x1)

I'm far too aware of my breathing
Far too scared of you leaving
The thing that you doubt i believe in Feeling kinda funny this evening
It'll make perfect sense
If you follow me, if you follow me
If you follow me, come follow me now

(Chorus x3)
