(intro)

They told me lies, 'bout all the birds, the bees, and butterflies.

'bout some dude watching us beyond the sky.

I said he don't mean nothing, no he's crap to me, they call it blasmpohy,

They tell me lies, 'bout how were made and where we go and when we die

That some dude watching us beyond the sky.

the classroom full of kids they laughed and clapped at me, the futures slapped to me.

Is there really anybody out there?

I said no... but it seems unclear..

Girl I look at you, and question what I learn at school.

We won't believe the fools at all, girl you know you're beautiful.

Must be somebody out there created you..

Dreaming of the movie stars, seems they left the best 'til last,

Must be somebody out there created you..

They told me stats. but they were based on words but not be mentioned facts, the kinda shit that make you not relax..

The crap the teachers showed me, started questioning.. see I was testing them.

Is there really anybody out there?

I said no... but it seems unclear..

Then I look at you, and question what I learn at school.

We won't believe the fools at all, girl you know you're beautiful.

Must be somebody out there created you..

Dreaming of the movie stars, seems they left the best 'til last,

Must be somebody out there created you..

I dont know the things that they told me are true..

I do know im happy that i found you..

Changing the stories, out for the glory,

We won't believe the fools..

I dont know the things that they told me were true..
I do know im happy that i found you...
Changing the stories, out for the glory,
We won't believe the fools..

We won't believe the fools at all, girl you know you're beautiful.
Must be somebody out there created you..
Dreaming of the movie stars, seems they left the best
'til last,
Must be somebody out there created you..

We won't believe the fools at all, girl you know you're
beautiful.
Must be somebody out there created you..
Dreaming of the movie stars, seems they left the best
'til last,
Must be somebody out there created you..
