Take a look at me
And remind me my mistakes
Tell me where to go
Just tell me where I have to go!

The words are the same
So pointless
Your eyes won't forget
My last request

All I ever wanted has gone
My thoughts are under the water
Empty cus'I'm away suspended in space

And even if I stay my mind will drown
This venom never fades... never fades...

We need to escape
And find a place for us
Until the day it's over
Until my soul gets ready to return!
And find the way back home
Feel my transition
God knows, where I belong

I feel so sedated... can you see the shadows passing by,

Passing by?
Everything is so unreal... it seems like I'm lost in

Time... lost in time...

Have you felt this way before?
Would you take my hand to save... to save me?

Sometimes I wish I could be so far away (so far away)
Where everybody listens to any broken dream...
Yes the silence has come to an end (to an end)
Believe me when I confess... Believe me every word I have to

Say

We need to scape
And find a place for us
Until the day it's over
Until my soul gets ready to return!
And find the way back home
Feel my transition
God knows, where I belong... where I belong.
