Verse 1:

This is the end, tonight
These days the sun will not arise
Cause buried under the carnage
Our guns brought upon

Pre-Chorus:

No one this time
No more lies to blame
The enemy is waiting for the blood

The line where life stands
Filled with sadistic requests of Tyrants,
Pawns in service to the king

Chorus

In debate with God and Death
Persuading the exchange of life

Verse 2:

Listen Brothers! We won't stop!

I am the shaper of my future
You're the story's author
Builder of breathing words
And I'm a heartless bearer of hope... our hope!

Bridge 1:

You liar, you puppeteer
The one who swore for the sake of our family
The one who built 333 roads of expectations
Sink down in an ocean of revenging constellations
So it's time for me to ask for forgiveness Father,
For the things I'm about to do will haunt my dreams forever
It's too late for us to redeem ourselves I know! but there's

No turning back! No!

Bridge 2:

Neither enemy faces,
Nor the mothers that love them
Come to mind when there is nothing to think!

Into the mist we walk
Brothers we are from now on Sharing faith and hope

Chorus:
In debate with God and Death
Persuading the exchange of life
When staring into ashen haze
A Lion's roar, this is an elegy
This is an elegy.
