A broken sword is the last sign
That I dream, when I wake up in the present time
In Koppigen stand ruins
Shadows of the templar in my dreams
And the stone which we can't find

[Pre]

A word, a light, one secret mind
A sign, a lord and the broken sword
That is the last thing I will find
...was the dream that I feel
The lost secret dream, was the dream that I feel

[Chorus]

Just dreaming we're inside
With Baphomet's oath
These are the only tales
And they take us back to Kurt's time
With Baphomet's oath

[Solo parts]

A broken sword is the last sign
That I dream, when I wake up in the present time
In Koppigen stand ruins
Shadows of the templar in my dreams
And the stone which we can't find

[Pre]

[Chorus]

Just dreaming we're inside
With Baphomet's oath
These are the only tales
And they take us back to Kurt's time
With Baphomet's oath

[Outro]
