In this place, far from home to me
Blood in my body, faces in my souls
Destiny is my reality of the daylight
Behind me on my horse, the wild hunt is near
Went the footprints of malice follow your soul
Then you will think it's too late
When the faces of your enemies in the fog
Start to hunt you
Look up and see the distant sky
[Chorus]
This is the point in Kurts life,
When his mind is shining bright
Take a dream of a holy world,
Bachtelenbrunnen is the point of a new return
Oh, oh, oh, lost in the sky
Lost, lost in the fog of faith
Forgotten resolutions are destroyed in my soul
Please God, help me tonight, the wild hunt will kill me
The wild hunt is just in my mind...
The roots of regret are deep in Kurt and take him to another lord
The meaning of life under control
In this place, far from home to me
Blood in my body, faces in my souls
Destiny is my reality of the daylight
Behind me on my horse, the wild hunt is near [Swiss-German]
Wart nid ab, wart nid ab... wenn's z'spt isch, isch's z'pat...
Went the footprints of malice follow your soul
Then you will think it's too late
When the faces of your enemies in the fog
Start to hunt you
Look up and see the distant sky
