Brothers, the machine can see into the future
The machine can see into the past
You'll never see the light before
Then, dear friend, we will send you on a long journey
And this time journey will become very painful for you
There is a hole in the wall
Jump inside
Travel back into the year 1386
And tell us everything about the 13
Then you will become a member of us
Brothers, activate the machine
At the end of the journey, the horn of calling will open up
