Silent in the darkness of mystic
When I travel through the dark
On my way to nz by the forest
To find a girl so strong in love
Swordstrokes I feel, careless to me
A dream of a wife
The crowning to my life
Born in a house near by the forest
Where the honoured lords want to live
In the middle of a trade route
Where the hill begin to fall
Swordstrokes I feel, careless to me
[Chorus]
This is the tale of a girl like a nightingale
This was the night, when my heart began to break
Beware the sign of Agnes' song
Born in a house near by the forest
Where the honoured lords want to live
In the middle of a trade route
Where the hill begin to fall
Swordstrokes I feel, careless to me
[Chorus]
This is the tale of a girl like a nightingale
This was the night, when my heart began to break
Beware the sign of Agnes' song
