(M: Exciter , L: Dan Beehler)

In the shadows I will be lurking, waiting for my time to come

Noone messes with the dealer, I could burn for what I've done

In the night I will be watching, waiting for the man to show

Blood is boiling in my brains, you never know of tomorrow

Noone knows how far to go

Delivering to the Master

Don't sweat it the man's gotta show

Delivering to the Master

In the night the sweltering sweat running down the back of my head

Looking out for the man in black, One wrong move & I'm dead

The master calls I start to shake, burning inside with fear

No escape, no way out, my destination will soon be here

Noone knows how far to go

Delivering to the Master

Don't sweat it the man's gotta show

Delivering to the Master

(SOLO)

The moon has cast it's final glow, the sight of fogs in teh streets

White lines on a table of black, the only way I can ever find peace

Hiding out paranoia sets in, evil runs through my veins

Suicide, the last resort wake up I'm going insane

Noone knows how far to go

Delivering to the Master

Don't sweat it the man's gotta show
Delivering to the Master

I'm looking out for someone who could destroy my mind
I'm creeping 'round the corner biding my time
Waiting for the set-up time, waiting for the attack
The heat is on the dealer, you're never comin' back
