From darkness I was born forged in the black flame and tempered in storms of war I am conqueror, I am king

Emperors of this world, know thy coming for your kingdoms shall be mine carrion is a feast of bounty blood, a drink divine

Legions kneel before thy power no man can stand before thee

Conqueror
a god among men Destroyer
champion of death

Rivers of blood
flowing under the blessed kingdom flames scorch the land hear the laments of mortal men Rising age of the greater ones cleanse the land of inferiors great campaign of fire and blood a kingdom dread shall come

Behold the rise of Superion men are kings, and kings are gods Hail the age of Superion forever rule the strongest blood

Rivers of blood
flowing under the blessed kingdom

for your kingdoms shall be mine
